Hey There!

My name is Marilyn Scott and I help mature (no nest, almost-empty or empty nest) adults plan stress-free custom experiences.

You carved the time in your schedule for a vacation. The last thing you want is a stressful planning experience or even worse an underwhelming trip.

Planning a customized trip can be overwhelming, time-consuming, and stressful.

The research and the booking of all components from flights to accommodations, transfers to private day tours/experiences, and travel insurance can quickly go sideways, leaving you anxious, frustrated, and deflated.

It shouldn't be that way.

When we plan trips for our clients, they feel confident and reassured that all the details are taken care of, bringing them one step closer to creating unforgettable memories. We take great pride in knowing that our clients can travel with ease and comfort, knowing that everything has been taken care of for them.

While we serve our clients in many ways, our focus lies in travel to the Mediterranean and quiet Caribbean gems. Every single vacation is unique and created for you. We believe you deserve to travel your way, not through the perspective of a cookie-cutter itinerary.

From intimate celebrations to groups, hundreds of travelers have entrusted me with planning their travel experiences. I created this guide to help you find the perfect location to take your vacation to the next level.

If you crave something unique and extraordinary, you want the VIP treatment, take your breath-away moments and an experience you deserve; you are in the right place.

I hope you are as excited about starting on this as I am!
